SATURDAY RESULTS

DUN DIRT SWEET - 8TH - MAIDEN - 2000M ST ARNAUD
Dun Dirt Sweet stepped up to 2000m for the first time on Saturday, and probably just found it a bridge too far at this stage in his career. He was 1400m to 2000m, and had to endure a tough run early, where he was wide without cover for the early stages. He just got a bit tired late.

CRANK - 5TH - BM66 - 1000M SALE
Crank returned to the races on Sunday at Sale and ran a brave race first up. The track was officially a soft 7 at the time of the race, but the rain was consistent at jump time, which probably just found him out late. He will benefit from the run fitness-wise, and the Freedman camp will look to step him up in trip at his next start.

NEWY - 3RD - CLASS 2 - 1200M PORT MACQUARIE
Newy put in his usual honest effort at Port Macquarie on Sunday. Coming into the race as a last start winner, he was well supported, but just couldn't reel in the horse in front of him over the concluding stages. Trainer Kris Lees mentioned that he would appreciate stepping up in trip at his next start.

INCANDESCENT - 10TH - GROUP 2 - 1400M TE RAPA
Incandescent was involved in a bizarre race on Monday at Te Rapa. He jumped away fairly, but was taken back to last, and set too much of a task from there. George Rooke needed to weave an inside run, but he just didn't let down like he usually does. It was a hot field on that occasion, and we're confident that he will bounce back.
