MRH WEEKEND REVIEW

MAWJOOD - 1ST - ROSEHILL BM78 1500M

Mawjood deservedly returned to the winners' stall on Saturday, taking out a BM78 1500m contest in trying conditions at Rosehill. It was a great ride by Aaron Bullock, controlling the race from the lead and holding on to win by under a length. He continues to be a consistent Saturday metro performer.

OUR SASSY LADY - 1ST - MORPHETTVILLE BM72 1800M

What an incredible training performance from Jess and James Tzaferis, who have been able to reignite this mare's career! Teagan Voorham produced a perfect ride on Our Sassy Lady, controlling the race and then extending when required to finish 3 lengths in front of her opposition. Her rating was a career peak, and the best is still to come with her!

BOLD STRIKE - 6TH - CAULFIELD BM84 2000M

Bold Strike was competitive against some strong opposition on Saturday at Caulfield. He enjoyed a nice run in transit and finished off well in the concluding stages. Unfortunately, he just ran into some better horses on the day. He continues to race in good form this preparation.
