MRH WEEKEND REVIEW

LIGHTENING MANN - 1ST - SWAN HILL BM78 2400M

Lightening Mann secured his first victory on Australian soil with a tough performance at Swan Hill. In front of the Swan Hill carnival crowd, Jake Noonan produced a front-running victory, which was a shade of his UK self! He was headed by Shultzy in the straight, yet still managed to pick back up and drive home to win by a length. Congratulations to all connections!

ENGINE OF WAR - 3RD - RANDWICK BM72 2000M

Engine Of War produced a strong finish after his freshen-up from the South Australian Derby. He had to carry a big weight and was forced to the back half of the field off a slow tempo, but still managed to run the quickest last 800m of the race. The winner, Decalogue, had some stakes-level form as well, which adds further merit to the performance.

CHICAGO KING - 4TH - GOLD COAST CLASS 3 1400M

Chicago King was again competitive in his race at Gold Coast on Saturday. He somewhat missed the jump and was forced to settle into the back half of the field in a race where the leaders won. Chicago King still hit the line strongly and continues to race honestly.

NEWY - 8TH - NEWCASTLE CLASS 1 1200M

Newy produced a head-scratching performance on Saturday at his home track. It was great to see so many owners make the trip to Newcastle to support this son of Flying Artie! He settled in a nice position, but unfortunately gave no effort when asked for an effort. The stable will assess him to make sure that he has pulled up sound.

CHILLI CRAB - 9TH - STRATHALBYN CLASS 1 1100M

Chilli Crab returning to the races is arguably the story of the weekend. After moving stables and having two bouts of colic, Chilli Crab returned to the races at Strathalbyn. It's a credit to the Tzaferis team for the work they have done with her. Whilst she wasn't competitive in this race, she will benefit from the run fitness-wise, and would appreciate a drier track at her next start.
