MRH WEEKEND REVIEW

SAPPHIRE ROSE - 6TH - RANDWICK BM72 1600M

Sapphire Rose didn't disgrace herself at Saturday grade when finishing 6th at Randwick this weekend. She had an interesting run in transit, settling in a midfield position early, but then finding herself near the rear of the field at the top of the straight. She finished off quite strongly, but didn't trouble the place-getters. She will now head out for a 7-week spell.

WONDER KID - 9TH - FLEMINGTON BM84 1420M

Wonder Kid returned to the races on Saturday over an unsuitable 1420m. He was coming back off a throat operation, so it wasn't important that he got through the run safely, and Lachlan Neindorf reported that he was clean in the wind throughout. He will now head towards a BM84 over 1700m at Caulfield on July 11th, which will be a good step up in trip for him.

OUR SASSY LADY - 7TH - MORPHETTVILLE BM68 1800M

Our Sassy Lady endured a high-pressure contest at Morphettville on Saturday, a stark contrast to her previous run. She stuck on well in the concluding stages, and the Tzaferis team are keen to press on with her; targeting a similar contest in 2-3 weeks time.
