MRH WEEKEND REVIEW

GLORY DAZE - 1ST - ROSEHILL LISTED 2000M

Glory Daze returned to the winner's stall after 13 months to win his first stakes race! It was an incredible ride by Adam Farragher, who led the race and kicked clear to win. It's been a great training performance by the Maher team, who have reignited Glory Daze's career to get him back on the winners' list. Congratulations owners!

CENTENARIO - 9TH - ROSEHILL BM90 2400M

It was a disappointing performance from Centenario on Saturday at Rosehill. Jockey Zac Wadick got him into a perfect position in the early stages of the race, but the complexion of the race changed when the three leaders stretched the field out. When asked for an effort, Centenario unfortunately didn't let down and finished in the back half of the field.

MAWJOOD - 13TH - ROSEHILL BM88 1500M

Mawjood produced an end-of-prep style run on Saturday at Rosehill. In a race that was similar grade to his previous starts, he seemed to have lost his zest for racing this preparation, and Bjorn's team have decided to put him out to the paddock for a spell. He's had a super consistent preparation, and we can't wait to see him back in the spring to target the Big Dance.

HIGH TEMPO - 5TH - SALE BM62 1728M

In a race that was very winnable on paper, it wasn't the result we were after on Sunday with High Tempo. From the wide gate, Jackson Radley decided to go forward on High Tempo, but she is probably a more dynamic horse when ridden colder, which was evident by her final 300m
