SATURDAY RESULTS

APOCALYPTIC - 1ST - LISTED - 1300M RANDWICK
Apocalyptic returned to the winners stall in style in the Listed Silver Eagle on Saturday. The addition of the visors and lugging bit proved to be very successful for her. This victory will be so beneficial for her commercially, as she has now won a stakes race outside of 3yo grade. She beat home genuine Group 1 gallopers, and is now a live chance in the upcoming $10M Golden Eagle.

UNLEESHING - 1ST - GROUP 3 - 1600M RANDWICK
Unleeshing produced a stellar run in the Angst Stakes, powering over the top to notch up her very first Stakes victory. Her sectional data is incredible, as she produced the fastest last 600m and 400m of the entire meeting, which is a great statistic given that The Everest and the Sydney Stakes were both run on the same day. She is now bound for the Group 1 Empire Rose on Derby Day!

NINJA - 5TH - GROUP 1 - 1200M RANDWICK
Ninja was enormous in The Everest. He was beaten by under 2 lengths against the worlds best sprinter. He has proven to the world that he is a top class sprinter, and we're looking forward to seeing him progress to the Russell Balding on the 31st. Congratulations to all owners that are involved with Ninja. It's been an incredible ride so far!

DECORUM - 4TH - LISTED - 1300M RANDWICK
Decorum was incredibly brave in defeat in the Silver Eagle. As the races went on, it was edvident that it was advantageous to be off the fence, but due to the circumstances of the race, Tim Clark had to take an inside run with Decorum, yet he still managed to finish off into 4th.

TRANSCEND - 8TH - GROUP 3 - 1600M RANDWICK
Transcend put in a gallant performance on Saturday. Whilst she is still struggling to relax in her races, she loomed to win the race but was just beaten by a few better on the day.

PLATINUM PEARL - 12TH - GROUP 1 - 1600M CAULFIELD
Platinum Pearl was set an enormous task from the rear of the field in the Thousand Guineas. The race was dominated by those up on speed, making it nearly impossible for Platinum Pearl to make ground. We're awaiting to hear how she's pulled up to see if she will still head towards the Wakeful, or if she needs a little reset.
