Exclusive TIPS AND INSIGHT FOR myRacehorse OWNERS

FRI // APRIL 19TH

GULFSTREAM PARK — #2 CUMBERLAND FALLS — RACE 4 - 2:46 PM ET

Cumberland Falls certainly looks like the horse to beat. We'll try to nail a straight exacta in this short field of seven with #4 Mystic Sunrise, who stretches back out to a route—all of her best prior races were around two turns.

OAKLAWN PARK — #2 CATALYST — RACE 6 - 3:20 PM CT

This is a tougher race to bet. Flashy Dancer is the horse to beat here off a troubled debut second. If someone challenges her it'll likely be Baffert firster Miss Rockette. We'll look to spice up the exotics with our girl Catalyst.

SANTA ANITA — #5 JAI HO — RACE 2 - 1:30 PM PT

Jai Ho makes her long-awaited return to the races and appears very well-spotted. Her last work on Apr. 12 was one of her best in quite some time according to trainer Mark Glatt. Collectively gets some class relief and should be very dangerous on the front end. Precipice returns from a break and figures to come running late like she did last season.

SANTA ANITA — #4 LANE WAY — RACE 4 - 2:30 PM PT

Lane Way finds a short field in Sunday Siren Lure S. Lane Way returns to his home course, the Hillside turf course. He should sit a great trip behind First Peace and Mucho Del Oro and hopefully, a speed battle will set it up for us. First Peace fired an impressive effort off of the layoff down the hill in a 2x allowance race and then had a huge task thrown at him facing G1 competition going a mile. . We're taking a chance throwing out Mucho Del Oro who also clearly loves this course but in a short field were trying to create the best value we can.
